Birthstones

JANUARY - Garnet

The word is thought to originate from the Latin and refers to a possible resemblance to Pomegranate Seeds.

FEBRUARY - Amethyst

From the Greek word meaning 'Not Drunken'. According to mythology it inspires fairness and a sense of duty.

MARCH - Aquamarine

Derived from sea-water and said to engender a spirit of hope and a promise of better things to come.

APRIL - Diamond

From the Greek 'Adamas' meaning indomitable. Thought to protect the wearer from evil and ill health.

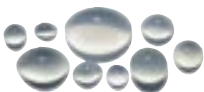

MAY - Emerald

Dedicated to Venus (The Goddess of Love) and said to protect seafarers from drowning.

JUNE - Pearl (or Moonstone)

Emblems of nobility and thought by some Scotsmen to ensure a faithful lover when worn next to the heart.

JULY - Ruby

Thought - by the King of Siam in the 13th Century - to prolong youth: he died in his 90's with the unwrinkled complexion of a young man.

AUGUST - Peridot

From the Arabic 'Faridat' meaning precious stone. Thought to cure mental and physical timidity and strengthen the nerves.

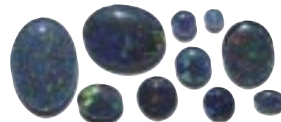

SEPTEMBER - Sapphire

Represents the purity of the soul and mirrors the blue of heaven. Thought to protect its owner from captivity.

OCTOBER - Opal

A symbol of hope and good luck. Thought to protect against poisoned food and to promote a good memory.

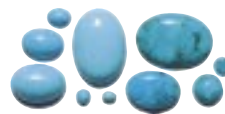

NOVEMBER - Topaz (or Citrine)

Derived from Sanskrit 'Tapas' meaning fire. Thought to ward off epilepsy and asthma and to cure insomnia.

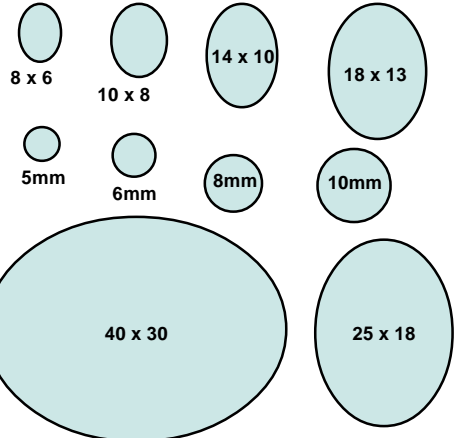

DECEMBER - Turquoise

Popularised by its use in Egypt nearly 5,000 years ago. Said to guarantee the fidelity of those in love.

Imitation Stones

The sketches illustrate the full size, (in millimetres), of our standard range. Other sizes are available in some of these stones - see the following detail pages for the full range

Assembly:

Most of the stones on the following pages have flat backs and can be used in any of our settings which are suitable for cabochons. Please note that if the stone has a foiled back (ie silver or gold colour) then it must not be abraded prior to gluing.

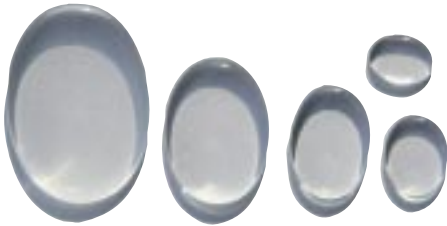

Ordering & Substitutions

When ordering, please specify the colour required in addition to quoting the stock code numbers. In the event of an item ordered, being out of stock, we will substitute the nearest available alternative, unless the customer requests otherwise.
